

What did you like best about this presentation?	What can be improved?	What did you learn today?	Were there any difficulties with parking?	What topics would you like to see discussed for future events?	What keeps your up at night in regards to the current political climate?	How did you find out about this event?
Being with like minded people		Confirmed we are getting to a point of no return	No		Loss of democracy, environmental crisis, income inequality	Multiple sources
The speaker was excellent. I really enjoyed the Qand A.	I'd say just try and make sure the mic is set up and working beforehand. But, things do go wrong.	How close we are to the point of no return.	No	What specific, strategic actions can/should we be taking to address the onslaught of authoritarianism.	Authoritarianism	From my step-mom, Ann McCluskey
Sally Franks was a wealth of information. It was so worthwhile coming. I plan to attend upcoming events	You seem to be well organized. No improvements	The history of the rule of law	None	What future tactical and strategic actions can we take.	My children future	PACG Newsletter
Timeline presentation of previous presidents challenging the rule of law.		Create a plan of action based two issues.	None		Authoritarian president with an ineffective Congress. The fear of not being able to vote again	A friend
The speaker was good, inspiring us to pick two issues to be active for	More publicity from the sponsoring organizations	Legal background of promotion of unitary executive theory, with the Heritage Foundation.	No	Legal issues are good to know about.	Voter suppression	It might have been an email or a notice on Facebook.